MRS. DENNIS WILLIAM BALDWIN
the former Miss Brenda Kay Honeycutt

Wed In Afternoon Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Brenda Kay Honeycutt to Mr. Dennis William Baldwin took place Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Memorial United Methodist Church in Appomattox.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McLean Honeycutt of Route 2, Appomattox and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nathaniel Baldwin of Rt. 1, Pamplin.

The Reverend Paul Edward Leonard, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

A program of wedding music was rendered by Mrs. Joel Carnefix, organist. She played "Come, Holy Ghost, God and Lord" by Armsdorf, "Lord Jesus Christ Be Present Now" by Walthers, "Fantasia" by Pachelbel, "Musette" by Walford, "Aria In F Major" by Handel, "How Brightly Shines The Morning Star" by Buxtehude, "Choral Song" by Wesley and "Duet" by Handel. For the processional, "Processional" by Handel and for the recessional "Now Thank We All Our God" by Karg-Elert was used.

Mrs. Henry Gibson of Cullen, soloist, rendered "O Lord Most Holy" by Fraach, "Wedding Song" by Flor Peeters and "Wedding Prayer" by Dunlap.

The couple pledged their vows in a lovely setting of four candelabra with lighted tapers, two large urns of Majestic daisies, gladioli, and other spring flowers and a satin kneeling bench graced the center of the altar. White satin bows marked the reserved section for special guest and mothers of the couple.

The bride was escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents. As the bride entered the church, she paused to give her mother a long stemmed rose.

The bride was lovely in a gown of daeron organza, fashioned with chantilly lace trimmed scoop neckline and empire waistline. A double row of lace in the front of the A-line skirt gently eased into a ruffle slightly above the hemline. The detachable chapel train was edged with ruffled lace and caught to the dress with a bow, the matching chantilly lace chapel length veil was caught on a flat lace trimmed camelot to give a total look. The bride wore a single strand of pearls as her only ornament, the pearls belonging to her mother and late grandmother. She carried a cascade of yellow, bronze and white daisies accented with Zorina roses, baby's breath and ivy.

Miss Patricia Lloyd Hudson of Appomattox was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Rector Foster of Concord, sister of the bride; Mrs. Jan B. Ellenburg of Mt. Ulla, N.C., cousin of the bride; Miss Delores Jean Torrence of Appomattox and Mrs. Steve Via of Pamplin. The attendants wore identical floor-length gowns of gold print accented with orange satin ribbon and full ruffled skirts. Their headpieces were natural straw picture hats trimmed with orange streamers. Each attendant wore a gold necklace given them by the bride as their only ornament. They carried bronze majestic daisies with valarie satin ribbons.

Miss Robin Jo LeGrand of Appomattox, niece of the bride, was flowergirl. She was dressed in a white floor-length ruffled gown with orange satin ribbon. She carried a basket of white shasta daisies. She, too, wore a necklace given her by the bride.

Master Robert Douglas Stratton of Appomattox, nephew of the bride, served as ringbearer. He carried a lace and satin pillow.

Mr. Robert Nathaniel Baldman. Ushers were Thelbert Stratton of Appomattox, and Rector Foster of Concord, both brothers-in-law of the bride; Gary Jamerson and Steve Via of Pamplin.

Mrs. Honeycutt, mother of the bride, wore a full length gown of mint green. Her high necked dress had a row of matching lace down the center and was accented with a corsage of yellow daisies.

Mrs. Baldwin, mother of the groom, chose a gown of pink crepe for her son's wedding. Her floor length gown had a matching lace jacket to compliment the dress. She wore a corsage of pink and white daisies.

Mrs. Thelbert Stratton of Appomattox, sister of the bride, presided at the guest book. She wore a corsage of white gardenias. Mrs. Bob Stubblefield of Appomattox assisted at the guest book and passed out "Wedding Scrolls". She was remembered with a corsage of carnations.

Mrs. K. E. Coleman of Appomattox was Mistress of Ceremonies. She wore a floor length gown of white and grey accented with a corsage of white daisies.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents were hosts for a reception in the beautifully decorated Fellowship Hall of the church. A portrait of the bride was on display and the three-tier wedding cake, made by Mrs. Stratton, sister of the bride, centered a small round table. Mrs. Juanita Blackwelder of Mooresville, N.C., aunt of the bride, assisted Mrs. Stratton in serving the cake. Mrs. Sara Bostian and Mrs. Hilda Hagens of Mooresville, N.C., also aunts of the bride, presided at the silver punch service. Others assisting in caring for the guests included Mrs. Neta Overcash of Mooresville, N.C., aunt of the bride; Mrs. Lloyd Hudson and Mrs. V. O. Mims, of Appomattox.

Following a wedding trip to the Eastern Shore, the couple will make their home in Prospect.

Out-Of-Town Guest Attend Wedding

Out-of-town guests here for the marriage of Miss Brenda Kay Honeycutt to Mr. Dennis William Baldwin on Saturday, June 26 at the Memorial United Methodist Church included Mr. and Mrs. Danny Ellenburg of Mt. Ulla, North Carolina; Mr. and Mrs. Thad Blackwelder, Mrs. Sara Bostian, Mrs. Neta Overcash, Mr. George Blackwelder and Miss Jennifer Lee all of Mooresville, North Carolina; Mrs. Hilda Hagens of Salisbury, N.C.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moody and Mr. and Mrs. Jeb Carwile of Lynchburg.

Shower Honors Miss Hamlett

Miss Vicki Hamlett was honored Tuesday evening when Mrs. Raymond Jamerson, Mrs. Lucille Ferrell, and Mrs. Mary Bradley were hostesses for a miscellaneous bridal shower in the Jamerson home.

The dining table, where the guests were served, was centered with a bride doll and magnolias, baby's breath, lighted tapers in silver candelabras.

Guests attending the party included Mrs. Clyde Hamlett, mother of the honoree, Mrs. William C. Hubbard, mother of the bridegroom; Mrs. Mac Marston, grandmother of the bride, and a host of relatives and friends of the honored couple.

The Hamlett-Hubbard wedding was an event of Saturday afternoon, June 26, at Liberty Baptist Church, Appomattox.
